FIVE CATEGORIES OF APPRAISERS IN ALABAMA

1. Trainee Real Property Appraiser – This classification requires the trainee to work under the direct supervision of a certified or licensed real property appraiser who has been approved by the Board as a Mentor. The scope of practice for the appraiser trainee classification is the appraisal of those properties, which the supervising appraiser Mentor is permitted to appraise.
2. State Registered Real Property Appraiser – The “State Registered Real Property Appraiser” classification includes those individuals who may perform real estate appraisals on non-federally related properties (those properties which are the subject of appraisal for non-federally related transactions) including: (1) complex appraisals of 1 to 4 unit non-federally related residential properties having transaction value of $250,000 or less; other non-federally related non-residential properties having transaction value of $250,000 or less. (2) non-complex appraisals of 1 to 4 unit non-federally related residential properties having transaction values of $1,000,000 or less. (3) This classification does not include the appraisal of subdivisions wherein a development analysis/appraisal is necessary and utilized.
3. Licensed Real Property Appraiser – This classification includes those individuals who are licensed to perform real estate appraisals on properties involved in federally-related transactions including: (a) complex appraisals of 1 to 4 unit residential properties having transaction value of $250,000 or less; (b) non-complex appraisals of 1 to 4 unit residential properties having transaction value of $1,000,000 or less; (c) appraisals of other types of real estate having transaction value of $250,000 or less. The Licensed Real Property Appraiser is authorized to give a “Certified Appraisal” on a federally-related transaction, in accordance with FIRREA requirements.
4. Certified Residential Real Property Appraiser – This classification refers to those individuals licensed by the Board as being qualified to perform federally-related residential real estate appraisals on 1 to 4 unit residential properties without regard to the complexity or dollar amount. These appraisers are also permitted to appraise non-residential properties having a transaction value of $250,000 or less. The Certified Residential Real Property Appraiser is authorized to give a “certified appraisal” on a federally-related transaction in accordance with FIRREA requirements.
5. Certified General Real Property Appraiser – This classification shall consist of those persons certified by the Board as qualified to perform appraisals on all types of real estate, regardless of complexity or transaction value. This classification allows the appraiser to give a “certified appraisal” on a federally-related transaction in accordance with FIRREA requirements.
